PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

An exceptional 4 bedroom, 4.5 bathroom Townhouse in the highly sought-after Solara complex. This luxury townhouse, a 3-storey end unit is the only unit offering a separate guest suite perfect for visitors or nanny. It offers 10-foot ceilings with lots of natural light flowing throughout the space. The unit has spectacular water views across the canal from its master bedroom patio and third-floor rooftop terrace. The rooftop terrace has an outdoor shower and lounge area perfect for relaxing with your morning coffee or sunset cocktail. This unique unit boasts the largest square foot very livable area with 3 shady patios. It is also one of only two units in the complex that offers a ground-floor back patio with putting green and a large side patio equipped with BBQ, dining, and lounge area for extra outdoor living space. This townhouse is an end unit, and its strata lot is uniquely situated in the development. This is the only unit with private outdoor access to its garden suite and yard areas from both the front and back of the property. The Solara complex is a family-friendly development within the Crystal Harbour gated community with a park located just a short distance away. At this development, you will find lush landscaping and all the amenities one could ask for, including a swimming pool with hot tub, outdoor BBQ entertainment area, fully equipped gym, and a tennis/pickle ball court. This townhouse can also be a boater's dream as it comes with its own private boat slip providing easy access to popular spots like Kaibo and Rum Point via the North Sound waterways
